DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS
OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

DATE: July 24, 2007
TO: All DOC Staff/Inmates
FROM: Howard Skolnik, Director
SUBJECT: AB 510, section 2 - Changes regarding Residential Confinement – 317 Program

Residential Confinement (317) NRS 209.392

Eligibility for the Residential Confinement Program is as follows:

- Demonstrated willingness and ability to establish employment in the community;
- Demonstrated willingness and ability to enroll in a program of education or rehabilitation; or
- Demonstrated ability to pay for all or part or the costs of confinement and meet any existing obligation for restitution to the victim.

Criteria - not eligible if:

- Has recently committed a serious infraction of the rules;
- Has not performed the duties assigned to him;
- Has escaped or attempted to escape; or
- Has been convicted of:
 - Any crime of felony violence or felony threat of violence within the preceding three years;
 - A felony sex offense;
 - An A or B felony; or
 - More than one prior felony charge.

What it means:

Inmates seeking residential confinement must show they are both willing and able to find work or programming in the community.

Otherwise, an inmate must be able to pay for all or part or the costs of confinement and meet any existing obligation for restitution to their victim(s).

Inmates with any of the listed prohibited actions do not qualify for the program.

Inmates must still meet other requirements of ARs 521 and 523 as revised.
